POLICY CREATION PROCESS

6

Policies are necessary to provide specific direction to our officers on how police duties are to be performed.

Policies provide proven method requirements that have been vetted for their legality as well as best practice.

Every policy is approved by the Board of Public Works and Safety before its established.

ADOPTION

Once the policy is adopted and in place, it is distributed to the Goshen Police

Department staff.

The GPD reviews each of the adopted policies yearly to determine if information is current and still relevant.

The review is done by executive staff and Changes are made if tactics or laws change.

DRAFT

SOURCE

The policy is drafted and provided to the Goshen Legal Department for review.

FIRST REVIEW

The Legal Department reviews the need of the policy and its content to ensure it is best practice and conforms to the law.

5.

When all questions have been answered, the Board takes a vote to determine if the policy will be adopted and what parts modified.

BOARD OF PUBLIC WORKS

The policy is reviewed in a public meeting. During this meeting the Board and public can ask questions and share their thoughts.
