Michael Burk of Goshen said one of neighbors was approached by a man who said he was the new owner of the Fidler property. He said the man offered to buy the neighbor's property and showed plans that included a drainage map. Burk asked if the City had any information about this. Mayor Leichty said she had no information about this, but offered to do some research and get back to Burk.

Burk also asked about the status of the drain the City is supposed to install in his driveway. He asked if the City would assume liability if the drain is not installed until the spring and standing water freezes. City Director of Public Works & Utilities Dustin Sailor said the City now has a plan for the work and if Burk approves it, the work can proceed. Burk thanked Sailor.

There were no further comments, so Mayor closed comment period at 6:07 p.m.

1) Kid Mayor presentation and speeches by the finalists

Mayor Leichty said the six finalists for the 2024 City of Goshen Kid Mayor program would now give speeches to the City Council. The fourth grade elementary school finalists were Amari Stoll of Chamberlain; Lincoln Tolin of Model; Christopher Budiardja of Chamberlain; Philip Gingerich of Chamberlain; Elyana Rojas Lopez of Parkside; and Ainsley McPhail of Prairie View. The Mayor asked Wendy Clark, the parent liaison at Model Elementary School and the Kid Mayor coordinator, to provide an overview of the program.

Clark said the Kind Mayor program was started several years ago at Model Elementary and then expanded throughout the City. Any fourth grader with a City address can participate, including students enrolled in private schools or who are home schooled.

Clark said the program follows the state's academic standards for fourth graders and participants have to choose an issue that is pertinent to Goshen and is important to them. They also have to propose a solution that is feasible for a fourth grade student to accomplish.

Clark said participants must develop a video that is three minutes or less. They send the video to a committee that reviews and selects finalists. The finalists then campaign for the position of Kid Mayor and videos of the speeches from tonight as well as the students' platform videos will be shown to the City's fourth grade students, who will then vote. After the election, the runner-up candidates will serve as the Kids Council. The Kid Council members will meet over the following year and will develop a project they can complete.

Mayor Leichty said it was a wonderful program.

Councilor Eichorn asked for an update on plans to expand the program. Clark said the goal is to expand the program locally before expanding to other states. Councilor Eichorn said Clark does this on her own time, a comment that prompted audience applause.

Mayor Leichty read information about the students and then invited them to make brief speeches, in this order:

Amari Stoll of Chamberlain Elementary School enjoys academics, being outside, and joking around with her siblings. Amari says she would make a good Kid Mayor because she is good at being organized and professional. Amari, 9, said she is a compassionate and determined person who cares about and listens to others and dreams about doing something important and new for Goshen and the nation.

Lincoln Tolin of Model Elementary described himself as kind, helpful, responsible, respectful, and generous to all people in the world. Lincoln loves basketball, football, math, and spending time with his family and friends. Lincoln said he is caring, helpful and kind and wants to organize a coat drive so that no child in need is left without a coat this winter.

Christopher Budiardja of Chamberlain Elementary loves to play soccer during recess with his classmates. He plays violin and likes to help others. Christopher would like to become the Kid Mayor because he loves Goshen and wants it to be the best community it can be. Christopher said he would like to encourage restaurants to develop activities or games for families to play while waiting for their meals, so they aren't just looking at their phones.

Philip Gingerich of Chamberlain described himself as funny, smart, and creative. He enjoys spending time with his family. Philip would like to be elected Kid Mayor because he believes he could make a big impact on Goshen. Phillip said he would like to promote a cleaner Goshen by encouraging people to pick up trash.

Elyana Rojas Lopez serves as an ambassador at Parkside Elementary. She likes reading and can speak Spanish and English. She would like to be a marine biologist. Elyana would like to be Kid Mayor because she loves to help her community. Elyana said he wants to reduce waste and harm to wildlife caused by discarded plastic grocery bags.

Ainsley McPhail of Prairie View Elementary. loves to stay active and play volleyball. She is also a big Baby Yoda fan. Ainsley thinks she would be a good Kid Mayor because if she is elected, she will be responsible and kind. Ainsley said she would like to encourage greater recycling by adding containers downtown and in parks and educating people about recycling during downtown First Fridays.

Mayor Leichty facilitated a photograph of all of the Kid Mayor finalists with City Council members.

Mayor Leichty and Council members thanked the students for their ideas. The Mayor said the Kid Mayor winner and finalists will be announced at the Dec. 4 City Council meeting.

2) Declaration: Mayor Leichty proclaims Nov. 19, 2023 as Women Entrepreneurship Day

Mayor Leichty said she was contacted in April by members of Michiana Women Rise, an organization committed to promoting careers, entrepreneurship, leadership, and inspiration for women in business. She said about 8 percent of businesses in Elkhart County and 17 percent in Goshen are owned by women. She said a mayoral proclamation was an opportunity to recognize the contributions of women in the community.

Mayor Leichty asked women entrepreneurs present at the meeting to stand up and be recognized by introducing themselves and mentioning their businesses. Among those present were Amanda Sensenig, Goshen Brewing Company; Annie Mininger, Bodywork by Annie J; Katharine Schrock of Katharine Schrock Counseling; and Stacey Black, founder of Michiana Women Rise.

Mayor Leichty then read the proclamation, which she also distributed to the Council (EXHIBIT #1):

I call upon all residents, business organizations, and community leaders to join me in recognizing and celebrating the contributions of women entrepreneurs to our local economy and supporting their continued success.

Mayor Leichty said Women Entrepreneurship Day is a holiday recognized by 144 countries. She said the proclamation was a way for Goshen to recognize this day and the contributions of women business leaders.

At Councilor King's request, the Mayor repeated the percentages of local women-owned businesses – 8 percent in Elkhart County and 17 percent in Goshen. Councilor King said she thought the percentages would be higher. She thanked Mayor Leichty for the proclamation.

Cindy Cohen, founder of the C2 Your Health Women's Initiative, discussed the importance of recognizing and supporting women in business. She said women play a pivotal role in businesses, noting that 37 percent of Indiana businesses are owned by women. Cohen challenged people to support women-owned businesses. She also thanked the Mayor for recognizing the role of women in businesses,

The audience responded with applause.

3) Ordinance 5170 – Regulation of Open Burning in the City of Goshen and Providing Penalties for the Violations of Such Regulations

Mayor Leichty called for the introduction on First Reading of Ordinance 5170 – Regulation of Open Burning in the City of Goshen and Providing Penalties for the Violations of Such Regulations. Council President Weddell asked the Clerk-Treasurer to read Ordinance 5170 by title only, which was done.

Weddell/Pérez moved to approve Ordinance 5170 on First Reading.

BACKGROUND:

Before the Council, for first reading, was Ordinance 5170, Regulation of Open Burning in the City of Goshen and Providing Penalties for the Violations of Such Regulations. Ordinance 5170 would establish that:

- The City of Goshen Common Council has the authority to adopt ordinances to improve the health and safety of its citizenry and real property;
- The burning of leaves and other rubbish was once tolerated as a means of trash disposal;
- Health, safety, and welfare concerns dictate that the City not allow burning as a means of leaf and trash disposal;
- The Common Council previously banned Open Burning as a means of leaf disposal; and
- The Common Council seeks to better define its ban on Open Burning, while allowing for recreational and ceremonial fires to continue.

If passed by the Council, Ordinance 5170 would prohibit Open Burning with the following conditions:

- A. A person is prohibited from starting, kindling, causing, allowing, or maintaining any form of Open Burning of any materials on property in the City of Goshen, except as specifically authorized by this ordinance.
- B. A person is prohibited from allowing the accumulation or existence of combustible material that constitutes or contributes to Open Burning on property under the ownership and/or control of the person.

Section 3. Exemptions. Ordinance 5170 would exempt the following types of Open Burning, which would be allowed:

 5. The fire shall not be for disposal purposes.
 6. The fire shall not be located within five hundred (500) feet of a pipeline or fuel storage area.

C. Private residential burning, where the building contains four (4) or fewer dwelling units. Private residential burning must meet the conditions set forth in Section 5 and the following conditions:

1. Burning shall be in a noncombustible container that is sufficiently vented to induce adequate primary combustion and has enclosed sides and a bottom.

2. Only Clean Wood Products and paper may be burned.

Burning is prohibited in apartment and condominium complexes, and in mobile home parks.

D. The types of burning exempted by Indiana Code 13-17-9, as amended from time to time.

A. Any other type of fire whereby a resident of Goshen has obtained a variance from the provisions of this ordinance by petitioning the Goshen Board of Public Works and Safety may be allowed. C. Fires must be extinguished if the fire creates a fire hazard, nuisance, pollution problem, or threat to public health.

D. Firefighting equipment adequate for the size of the fire shall be on-site and nearby for extinguishing purposes during times of burning.

E. Any material containing asbestos may not be burned.

F. Burning may take place during daylight hours only, and all fires must be extinguished before sunset. This condition does not apply to recreational or ceremonial fires.

Section 10. Effective Date. This ordinance shall be in full force and effect from and after its passage, approval and adoption according to the laws of the State of Indiana.

SUMMARY OF NOV. 13, 2023 COUNCIL DISCUSSION & APPROVAL OF ORDINANCE 5170:

Mayor Leichty asked City Attorney Bodie Stegelmann to provide an overview of Ordinance 5170.

Stegelmann said the City Fire Department encountered issues enforcing open burning and asked for some clarification of the language of the ordinance now in place. He said Ordinance 5170 isn't necessarily a new ordinance, but revises the language of the current ordinance.

Stegelmann said Ordinance 5170 would make the revisions consistent with Indiana statutes and regulations adopted by the State. He said there aren't wholesale or substantive changes in the ordinance. Among the changes is the definition of what can be burned in fire pits, such as clean wood products, and excludes leaves and leafy substances.

Stegelmann also said the current ordinance restricts any burning from 6 p.m. until 6 a.m., which causes problems when it comes to fire pits. The draft ordinance also specifies the allowable burning to include fire pits. He said the other changes were made to match state statutes.

Mayor Leichty invited Council comments on Ordinance 5170.

Councilor Pérez said it appeared no leafy burning would be allowed. Stegelmann agreed, adding that plants or shrubs trimmed also could not be burned. Councilor King said she was happy to see this change.

There were no further Council comments at this point, so at 6:38 p.m., Mayor Leichty invited public comments on Ordinance 5170, Regulation of Open Burning in the City of Goshen and Providing Penalties for the Violations of Such Regulations.

Glenn Null of Goshen asked about the definition of "recreational" fires, noting that his family often will prepare food and snacks outside and then perhaps drink beverages into the evening by a fire pit. He asked for a clarification of what would constitute recreational fires. Stegelmann responded that the activities Null described would fall under the definition of "private residential burning" and would be allowed.

Null also said the ordinance would specify that "fires must be extinguished if the fire creates a fire hazard, nuisance, pollution problem, or threat to public health." He said the Fire Department once asked him to extinguish one of his fires because a neighbor complained the smoke was affecting their health. He said the neighbor could have shut the home's windows or door to keep out the smoke. He said the provision was vague and that a "nuisance" for one person might not be a nuisance for another person.

Mayor Leichty asked if the City Attorney cared to comment. Stegelmann said the wording would be open to interpretation to the person enforcing the open burning ordinance, just like any ordinance. If a person disagreed with the enforcement, that would be up to a judge or jury to decide.

Null said the provision was vague and could just be a matter of opinion.

Null also asked about an ordinance provision that stated that "Firefighting equipment adequate for the size of the fire shall be on-site and nearby for extinguishing purposes during times of burning." Null asked if a garden hose, shovel and rake would be adequate when he uses his fire pit. Stegemann said there's an idea of "reasonableness" under the law and the equipment Null described probably would be considered adequate under the circumstances. Null also said he understood that leaves should not be burned, but asked whether pine needles could be burned. Councilor Nisley noted that Null's time for speaking had expired. Null said he would ask more questions later.

Council President Weddell said he was present the last time Null talked to the Council about open fires. He said at that time, Null mentioned that he only had clean fires. Null agreed, but said he was playing the devil's advocate by raising questions about this draft ordinance.

Councilors Nisley, Weddell and Mayor Leichty thanked Null for asking questions.

There were no further comments, so Mayor Leichty closed the public comment period at 6:46 p.m.

Mayor Leichty asked if there were further Council comments on Ordinance 5170.

Council President Weddell said he has a "solo stove," which is designed for outdoor fires and is smokeless if used properly. He asked if using it would be a problem, including at night. Councilors King and Eichorn said it would not.

Council President Weddell asked if there was a redline version of Ordinance 5170. Stegemann said the Legal Department didn't prepare a redline version because there were so many changes in the ordinance.

Councilor King said she agreed with the City Attorney that the intent of the ordinance was not to outlaw small backyard fires, but said she has heard from people upset about things being burned that are not allowed. She added that some people without air conditioning don't have the option of closing windows to avoid smoke.

Councilor Nisley asked about burning parts of trees as long as they are small enough. Stegemann said that would be allowed as long as the fire took place "in a noncombustible container that is sufficiently vented to induce adequate primary combustion and has enclosed sides and a bottom," like a solo stove.

Councilor Nisley asked if it would be permitted to "feed a fire," as in a bonfire. Stegemann said bonfires are allowed as long as they are recreational or ceremonial. In addition, the fire can be no larger than 5 feet x 5 feet x 5 feet and the City Fire Department and Elkhart County Health Department must be notified in advance.

Mayor Leichty said it appeared there was a prohibition against fires at night. Stegemann agreed. However, Councilor Riegsecker said recreational or ceremonial fires are still allowed at night.

There were no further Council comments or questions. Council President Weddell said Councilors were ready to vote.

On a voice vote, Councilors unanimously passed Ordinance 5170, Regulation of Open Burning in the City of Goshen and Providing Penalties for the Violations of Such Regulations, on First Reading by a 7-0 margin, with all Councilors present voting yes at 6:51 p.m.

Councilors gave unanimous consent to proceed with the Second Reading of Ordinance 5170.

Mayor Leichty called for the introduction on Second Reading of Ordinance 5170 – Regulation of Open Burning in the City of Goshen and Providing Penalties for the Violations of Such Regulations. Council President Weddell asked the Clerk-Treasurer to read Ordinance 5170 by title only, which was done. Weddell/Eichorn moved to approve Ordinance 5170 on Second Reading.

Mayor Leichty invited further Council comments on Ordinance 5170.

There were no further Council comments, so at 6:52 p.m., Mayor Leichty invited additional public comments on Ordinance 5170, Regulation of Open Burning in the City of Goshen and Providing Penalties for the Violations of Such Regulations.

Glenn Null of Goshen said he understood the need for the ordinance, but said he was afraid of its vagueness and how it might be interpreted. Mayor Leichty and Council President Weddell thanked Null for his comments. There were no further comments, so Mayor Leichty closed the public comment period at 6:52 p.m.

Mayor Leichty asked if there were further Council comments on Ordinance 5170.

Council President Weddell said he understood Null's concerns, but asked if the kind of terms used in the ordinance, and which so concerned Null, were common. Stegelmann said they were. Councilors King and Eichorn said the enforcement of ordinances usually requires some judgment and interpretation.

There were no further Council comments or questions. Council President Weddell said Councilors were ready to vote.

On a voice call vote, Councilors unanimously passed Ordinance 5170, Regulation of Open Burning in the City of Goshen and Providing Penalties for the Violations of Such Regulations, on Second Reading by a 7-0 margin, with all Councilors present voting yes at 6:53 p.m.

4) Ordinance 5171 – Amending the Ordinance Violations Bureau

Mayor Leichty called for the introduction on First Reading of Ordinance 5171 – Amendment to the Ordinance Violations Bureau. Council President Weddell asked the Clerk-Treasurer to read Ordinance 5171 by title only, which was done.

Weddell/Schrock moved to approve Ordinance 5171 on First Reading.

BACKGROUND:

Before the Council, for First Reading, was Ordinance 5171, Amending the Ordinance Violations Bureau. Ordinance 5171 would establish that:

- Indiana Code § 33-36-2-1 allows a municipal corporation to establish an ordinance violations bureau;
- Indiana Code § 36-1-6-3 allows municipal corporations to enforce ordinances through admission of violation before an ordinance violations bureau and allows that bureau to turn over to the municipal corporation all sums collected as civil penalties for ordinance violations; and

- The Common Council of the City of Goshen, Indiana established an ordinance violations bureau, which is codified in the Goshen City Code at §1.2.1.1;
- The Common Council of the City of Goshen, Indiana has revised the ordinance violations bureau from time to time, most recently in Ordinance 5159, on or about May 15, 2023, and
- The Common Council of the City of Goshen, Indiana wishes to further revise the provisions of the ordinance violations bureau by adding Goshen City Code violations that are subject to admission before the violations clerk, and define appropriate levels and amounts of civil penalties to be imposed for such violations.

If passed by the Common Council, Ordinance 5171 would create an Ordinance Violations Bureau that would continue to operate under the authority of I.C. § 33-36-2-1, as amended, and under the terms of this Ordinance.

Section 2. Violations Clerk; Duties (excerpts)

- The Clerk of the City Court shall serve as the Violations Clerk, who shall administer the Bureau.
- The Violations Clerk shall accept written appearances, waivers of trial, admissions of violations, and payment of civil penalties as set forth in Section 3 of this Ordinance, but not more than $250.
- The Violations Clerk shall account for all payments received and deliver such penalty payments to the City of Goshen Clerk-Treasurer for all violations of the Goshen City Code, at such intervals as the City of Goshen Clerk-Treasurer determines, to be deposited in the general fund of the City of Goshen
- The Violations Clerk shall account for all payments received on behalf of every municipal corporation for whom the Violations Clerk has accepted payment of civil penalties pursuant to an interlocal agreement described in I.C. 33-36-2-4, deliver such penalty payments to the appropriate municipal corporation as provided in the interlocal agreement, and deliver records related to such payments to the Clerk-Treasurer's office or civil penalties attributable to the City of Goshen

SUMMARY OF NOV. 13, 2023 COUNCIL DISCUSSION & APPROVAL OF ORDINANCE 5171:

Mayor Leichty invited staff comments on Ordinance 5171.

Deputy Mayor Brinson said it was good timing to consider Ordinance 5171, with the Council just having passed Ordinance 5170, the ordinance on open burning, because people often ask what happens if someone doesn't comply with an ordinance. He said this is why cities in Indiana have Ordinance Violations Bureaus.

Brinson said this is the way the City can issue citations that create penalties for people who don't comply. He said that's typically done after people have been warned repeatedly and have refused to comply with ordinances.

Brinson said this ordinance has been on the books for many years, but the City has only begun enforcing it in the past year or so. He said the City has created an automated process and five or six City departments have been working together to figure out ways to make the process work smoothly. The group has discovered "missing pieces" that need to be added, so there will be amendments from time to time.

Brinson said the just-passed Ordinance 5170 will be part of the City Ordinance Violations Bureau group of ordinances the City will enforce. He said this approach will not replace lawsuits initiated by the City. He said this is an administrative process to issue citations and is more for "nuisance-level violations" and not major violations.

Brinson said this is not intended to be a revenue source for the City, although it will generate revenue. He said the goal is to gain compliance.

Brinson also said there are various tiers representing the severity of the violations and the penalties are increased for repeat violations. He said Ordinance 5171 also doesn't create any new violations.

City Attorney Bodie Stegelmann said Ordinance 5171 "will be tool in the toolbox," that will help the City address relatively minor violations. He said the hope is that writing a citation and imposing a civil penalty will help the City gain compliance with more of its ordinances. He said for severe or repeat violations, the City can still use the process of going to court and seeking a larger fine.

Stegelmann said it had come to the attention of City staff that there are certain violations that are on the books and not available for this process. So, he said City staff have come back to the Council and added violations that can be part of this process, and that is what's being requested tonight.

Stegelmann said the violations being added to the Ordinance Violations Bureau for enforcement are: the discharge of firearms within the City limits, fireworks, abandoned cars, violations of disposing of trash at the City recycling center, graffiti, the violation of park hours or possession of alcoholic beverages in parks, and violations of the hours of operation in cemeteries, as well as the consumption of alcoholic beverages in cemeteries. He said adding these offenses to the ordinance would allow for enforcement through the Ordinance Violations Bureau.

Councilor Pérez asked Stegelmann to clarify how enforcement would be done. He asked if it would be by the Board of Public Works and Safety. Stegelmann said enforcement would be done through the City Court. He said City staff can write citations and they are submitted to the City Court, which will send out notices of where a person cited can pay a fine or can come in and dispute the offense. Councilor Pérez asked about the enforcement by the Board of Works. Stegelmann said some enforcement can go through the Board.

Councilor Schrock asked if enforcement by the Court was faster. Stegelmann said it would depend on the type of violations. At times, he said, enforcement through a court can take more time, but there is certainty of timing.

Councilor Nisley asked how an open burning dispute would be handled. He said if a person was ordered to extinguish a fire, and disagreed with the order, how could they file a grievance about that – or could they only appeal if there was a citation? Brinson said any citation could be contested in the City Court. Stegelmann said if a citation wasn't issued, the person could appeal to Fire Chief Dan Sink, Mayor Leichty, the City Attorney or an elected official. In response to a comment by Councilor Schrock, Stegelmann said a person could also contact a Councilor. Councilor Riegsecker said it would make sense for a person to appeal to those responsible for the enforcement of open burning, which would be Ordinance Compliance Officers, the Police Department and the Fire Department. Stegelmann said the Fire Department normally handles those kinds of calls. Councilor Nisley said in most case, Fire Department staff ask for fires to be extinguished.

Brinson said City staff who can issue citations would rather not do so. He said they would rather work with people and gain voluntary cooperation. He said hopefully through education, the City can accomplish its goals. Brinson said this ordinance is designed for people who refuse to comply and there needs to be some penalties. Councilor Schrock asked if this was sort of a last resort. Brinson answered, "Correct."

Council President Weddell said he appreciated the provisions that were added to address the dumping of trash at the City's new recycling center. He asked if prior to this ordinance, was the City able to enforce these types of violations. Mayor Leichty responded that it was much more difficult.

Council President Weddell said as a user of that facility, he knows that the rules about what can or cannot be disposed of are plainly posted, so there has been adequate education and if people ignore the rules, he hopes the ordinance is enforced. Councilors Eichorn and Weddell noted that cameras are being used to monitor the recycling center. Council President Weddell said without enforcement, the City won't have a recycling center because it will be ruined. Councilor Eichorn and Mayor Leichty agreed.

Stegelmann noted that the Board of Public Works and Safety earlier today adopted rules for the recycling center (Resolution 2023-35, Establishing Rules for Use of the City's Public Recycle Drop-off Site) to clarify what was allowed and not allowed to be disposed of.

Clerk-Treasurer Aguirre said the City seeks a balanced approach of seeking compliance with ordinances, but there are those who won't comply. As an example, he said there is a local property owner who has repeatedly been cited for allowing "rank vegetation and noxious weeds" on his properties. He said the Clerk-Treasurer's Office recently requested property tax liens for about 17 City properties, almost all of those from a single property owner. And because the maximum the City can charge is $250, Aguirre said that property owner is regularly able to get City staff to help maintain his properties for just $250. So, Aguirre said he would like to explore and possibly propose higher fines for those who have persistent violations.

There were no further Council comments at this point, so at 7:07 p.m., Mayor Leichty invited public comments on Ordinance 5171, Amending the Ordinance Violations Bureau.

Glenn Null of Goshen asked for a clarification about the references to some of the ordinances, which the city Attorney clarified. Null commented about the discharge of firearms, fireworks and the placement of leaves near streets, and he wondered about enforcement.

Overall, Null said that he liked the idea of an Ordinance Violations Bureau, but said he didn't know about some of the fines. He said clarifications are always important.

There were no further comments, so Mayor Leichty closed the public comment period at 7:10 p.m.

Mayor Leichty asked if there were further Council comments on Ordinance 5171. There were none. Council President Weddell said Councilors were ready to vote.

On a voice vote, Councilors unanimously passed the motion to approve Ordinance 5171, Amending the Ordinance Violations Bureau, on First Reading by a 7-0 margin, with all Councilors present voting yes at 7:10 p.m.

Councilors gave unanimous consent to proceed with the Second Reading of Ordinance 5171.

Mayor Leichty called for the introduction on Second Reading of Ordinance 5171 – Amendment to the Ordinance Violations Bureau. Council President Weddell asked the Clerk-Treasurer to read Ordinance 5171 by title only, which was done.

Weddell/Nisley moved to approve Ordinance 5171 on Second Reading.

Mayor Leichty invited further Council comments on Ordinance 5171.

There were no further Council comments, so at 7:11 p.m., Mayor Leichty invited public comments on Ordinance 5171, Amending the Ordinance Violations Bureau. There were none. Council President Weddell said Councilors were ready to vote.

Councilor Perez noted that the Goshen Police Department issued a new release earlier today about the death of Judith Gill, 83, of Elkhart in a vehicle vs. train accident at the Main Street railroad crossing, just north of Pike Street. He asked that people remember the family of the victim and take care when driving near railroad tracks.

Clerk-Treasurer Aguirre reminded Councilors that they are eligible to receive a $500 stipend from the City to reimburse them for the cost of technology – cell phone usage or computers. He said the deadline to apply was Dec. 1 to the Clerk-Treasurer's Office.

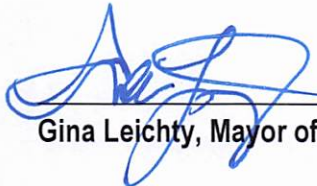

Mayor Leichty said she would be sending Councilors an invitation to training for elected officials sponsored by Accelerate Indiana Municipalities (AIM) in January.
